Miss Katherine Low and Miss Fan-nic Neblett have returned to Black-stone after a visit to Richmond.

Miss Lyda Graham has returned from Virginia Beach, where she was the guest of Mrs. William Shelburne.

Invitations Issue.

have issued cards announcing the an-

J. Young, formerly of St. Louis, Mo., but now of Hampden-Sidney College. The marriage will take place at the Waverly Baptist Church on Wednesday, December 20, at 9:30 A. M.

Children Cry

CASTORIA

Dilling Dives Universal

The Celvet Kind

Pure SAME QUALITY

HEREAM EVERY DAY

B. Mosby & Co.

Furs at a discount of 10 to 20

Get Everything Needed for Comfortable

Traveling at

ROUNTREE'S

13 E. BROAD ST TREE

Choice Selection of

Christmas Gifts at

TRAGLE'S

Jurgens

$100,000.00 Furniture Sale is the

NOT TALK, BUT ACTION, HAS

Greentree's

Broad at Seventh

Handsome Furniture for Gifts

Jones Bros. & Co., Inc.,

1418-1420 East Main Street.

Sauer's The second seco talk of Richmond.

The Flour That

Satisfaction.

Social and Personal

A N interesting wedding to be celebrated this evening in Wash-Ington is that of Miss Nancy Darling, of Baltimore, and J. Bernard Robb, of this city. The ceremony will take place very quietly at 7 o'clock at the home of the bride's brother, Charles Tierman Darling, and will be witnessed by only the nearest relatives and a few intimate friends of the bride and groom. The house will be decorated in pink and white chrysanthemums against a background of palms and Southern smilax and great bunches of mixtletoe will be hung from the chandellers and banked on the maniels. The flev S. G. Ware, rector of St. Poter's Church at Port Royal, will officiate, and a stringed orchestra will play the "Bridai Chorus from "Lohengrin" at the entry of the bridai party.

The bride will wear an exquisite gown of heavy white satin made with an overdress of chiffon and real lace and embroidered in pearls. Her tulle well will be arranged with a coronat of orange blossoms, and she will carry a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. Mrs. Charles Tlerman Darling will be dame of honor and the bride's only attendant. Her gown is of pink satin with a drapery of paler pink marquisette and trimmings of real lace. She will carry a big bouquet of Killarney roses. Philip L. Robb, of Baltimore, will act as his brother's best man.

A reception will follow the cere-of Baltimore, will act as his brother spect man.

A reception will follow the ceremony, after which Mr. Robb and his orlide will leave for their wedding trip. They will be at hom, after Junuary 1 at 323 South Third Street, Dichmond.

Richmond.

Engagement Announced.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Taylor, of "The Oake," Parkwood, Ga., have announced the engagement of their daughter.

Annie Louise, to Philip Haxall Latimer, of Brunswick, Ga. Mr. Latimer is the son of Mr and Mrs. George W. Latimer, and is well known in Richmond, where he formerly resided. The wedding will take place at the home of the bride's parents during the Christmas holidays.

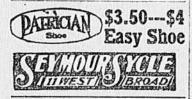

Leaving Town.

Christmas holidays.

Lenving Town.

Mrs. W. D. Newman and children, who have been with Mrs. Newman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Sydnor, at 1823 Grove Avenue, have returned to their home in Farmville. Mrs. Newman's child, who has been in Richmond for treatment is now much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Denoon are leav-ing this week for a tr'p South. After

See Our Great New Store

Sydnor & Hundley

Seventh and Grace

For Oil Cooking and Heating Stoves

N. KLEIN & SON, INC., 620 East Broad.

SPECIAL SALE OF Blankets and Comforts Sutherland & Cheery, Inc.

HAVE YOU SEEN

New Method Gas Ranges

Pettit & Co.'s?

Cuff Pins

All Gold, $1.50 Pair. These are not merely gold top. Plain and engraved. All finishes and designs

Smith & Webster,

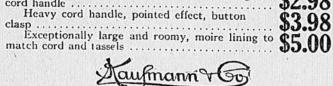

Nowhere in town can you find such an extensive assortment as are at present on display in our Leather Goods Section. All the newest ideas are apparent at very special prices. All colors. Fringed, trimmed with long silk cord ndle Square effect, moire lined Coin Purse, long silk $2.98

a visit to New Orleans, Mr. and Mrs.
Denoon will go to Palm Beach, Fla., where they expect to spend the winter months. They will be accompanied on their trip by their nieces, Misses Lilian Key. of Charlottesville, and Miss Tyler, of Augusta Springs.
Lecture by Miss Johnson.

George W. Woodward, who was recently operated on at Memorial Hos-

The lecture given by Miss Mary Johnston on woman suffrage before a Men's League at West Point, Va., or Men's League at West Point, Va., on the evening of November 7, was followed by a drawing room talk on Friday morning and the organization of a west Point Branch League for Equal Suffrage.

The officers of this league are Mrs. Crosby Thompson, president; Mrs. Thomas P. Bagby, vice-president; Mrs. J. P. Williams, secretary, and Mrs. Edward Urmetze, treasurer.

The drawing room meeting was hold in the home of Mrs. Thompson, and after the meeting Miss Johnston, in company with her hostess, visited the company with her hostess, visited the Indian reservation not far from West

Indian reservation not far from West Point.

Miss Johnston and Mrs. Valentine leaves Tuesday for Danville, Va., where they will address an audience in the Young Men's Christian Association auditorium. They will be guests of Mrs. W. T. Harris, and through her courtesy and that of Mrs. Janie Gray Hagan, president of the Wednesday Afternoon Club, they will be able to give parlor talks as well as public give parlor talks as well as public days in Gordonsville. addresses.

A recent issue of the Washington Post contains the following of interest to Richmond society:
"The marriage of Miss Marguerite Morse, daughter of the Rev. Oliver C. Morse, D. D., and Dr. William Hunt Walcott, formerly of Washington, now of West Virginia, took place Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock, at the home of the bride's aunt, Miss Gortrude Jones, 1320 Eleventh Street, northwest. The afternoon at 4 o'clock, at the home of the bride's aunt, Miss Gertrude Jones. 1320 Eleventh Street, northwest. The ceremony was performed by the bride's father, assisted by her uncle, the Rev. Richard C. Morse, of New York. The little sister of the bride, Miss Rebekah Morse, was maid of honor, and the best man was Dr. A. W. Erskine, of Pennsylvania, a classmate of the bridegroom at the Baltimore Medical College. Dr. Olive Cox and Anthony Morse, boother of the bride, were ushers.

"The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Richard C. Morse. She wore a gown of white satin, with a tuille veil, and carried white sweetpeas. The maid of honor wore a gown of white muslin over blue silk.

"Dr. Walcott and his bride left Washington last evening for Cumberland, en route to Needmore, W. Va., where they will live. Among the out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mrs. M. Austin, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Morse, of New York; Miss Mary A. Walcott, of Richmond, and Oliver C. Morse, Jr., of Newport, R. I." Special Cars for Dance. Special Cars for Dance.

Special cars for Dance.

Special cars leaving Robinson and Broad Streets at 9 o'clock will convey the guests to the dance given December 14 at the Country Club by Mrs. Edward O. Valentine, of 411 East Franklin Street. The dance will be given in honor of Miss Elizabeth Bentley and Miss Emma Consust.

given in honor of Miss bilizabeth Bent-ley and Miss Emma Conquest. The same cars will bring the guests back to town, leaving the club at 12:30. Lecture Tuesday.

There will be the usual lecture at the Art Club of Richmond to-morrow afternoon at half-past 4 o'clock. Miss Adele Clarke will talk on "Ten Most Patronized Art Schools in Richmond." The lectures are always delightful af-

Patronized Art Schools in Richmond."

Ine lectures are always delightful affairs, and all interested in art subjects are cordially invited to be present. Tea will be poured as usual by a committee appointed to receive on that atternoon.

Luncheon This Week.

Ars. Lyon-Pemberton will entertain at a very handsome luncheon on Thursday of this week. The affair will be given at the Country Club of will be given at the Country Club of Virginia, and some 225 guests have been invited.

will be given at the Country Club of Virginia, and some 225 guests have been invited.

Glee Club Concert.

The Richmond concert of the Richmond College Glee Club will be given in the Thomas Art Hall of Richmond College on Tuesday evening. December 12, at 8 o'clock. The concert is to be followed by a reception in the library by the faculty to the Glee Club and their friends. The following are to be patronesses of the Glee Club: Mrs. J. Taylor. Ellyson, Mrs. George Brvan, Mrs. D. C. Richardson, Mrs. John Garland Pollard, Mrs. Evan R. Chesterman, Mrs. Thomas L. McAdams, Mrs. Ryland Knight, Mrs. A. J. Montague, Mrs. Benjama T. Crump, Mrs. T. William Pemperton. Mrs. T. A. Cary, Mrs. Cary Ellis Stern, Mrs. William Ellyson, Mrs. John Bagby, Mrs. George W. McDaniel, Mrs. Howard D. Bryant, Mrs. J. G. Corley. Mrs. G. Harvey Clarke and Mrs. J. A. C. Chandler and the ladies of the faculty. Violin Recital.

A very attractive program has been arranged for to-morrow afternoon, when the children of the Hequembourg School of Music, ranging in age from four and a half years and up, will be heard in' a recital. The concert will be given at the Woman's Club af halfpast i o'clock. and the public is cordially invited to attend. It will be a very interesting event, and the parlors of the club will be crowded for the occasion.

Married in Washington.

Married in Washington Married in Washington.

The marriage of Miss Sallie Helen Adams and Preston Carlysle Pocklinton was celebrated in Washington on Wednesday, November 29, the Rev.
McLaughton performing the ceremony.
Miss Adams is the daughter of Mrs.
Annie W. Adams, of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Pocklington will make their home in Highland Spites. in Highland Springs.

in Highland Springs.

A. P. V. A. Meeting.

An important called meeting of the A. P. V. A. will be held in the rooms of the Virginia Historical Society today at 11 o'clock. All members are urged to attend.

In and Out of Town.

Mrs. Otto Theodore Hess and little son have returned from New York.

Mrs. William Shelburne, of Virginia, leach, is the guest of Mrs. Bruce lowe in this city.

Miss Virginia Gordon, who has been

Muskeeter Suede Bags tor Gift Seekers

HUDGINS ACTED IN SELF DEFENSE

Jury Acquits Him on Charge of Killing Cecil Hogg-Negro Is Shot.

IS SNOt.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Lancaster, Va., December 10.—An interesting trial for murder has just been concluded in the Circuit Court of Middlesex, Judge Claggett B. Jones presiding. Last August C. H. Hudgins and Cecil Hogg, both living in the southeastern part of that county, butween whom hard feeling had existed for some time, got into an altercation, in which Hudgins shot and killed Hogg. The trial lasted nearly two wyeks, and great crowds attended every day. The accused was represented by State Senator Saunders, of Middlesex, and Thomas J. Downing, of Lancaster, and Joseph W. Chinn, of Richmond county, assisted Commonwealth's Attorney Evans in the prosecution. The jury rendered a verdict of not guilty on the ground that the killing was done in self defense.

Harvey Waters, a young negro man, living between Kilmarnock and Irvington, was shot in the back and dangerously wounded Saturday by Lettle cently operated on at Memorial Hos-pital, is now improving. Robert Somerville, of Greenville, Miss., is the guest of his sister, Mrs. B. C. Wherry.

ton, was shot in the back and dan gerously wounded Saturday by Letti Diggs, a young negro woman. Sho Mrs. Aubrey Bungers, John Am-rhein, John H. Lyneman and Leonard Amrhein are registered at the Mari-borough Hotel, New York City. Mrs. John W. Rison, Jr., of Suffolk, is the guest of friends in this city for several weeks.

pliggs, a young negro woman. She met him near Kirk's Mill Hill waiking with another woman, and becoming enraged, she pulled out a pistol and shot as he was trying to fiee from her. The ball has not yet been located, and it is not thought that the wounded man can recover.

Miss Henrietta Lee Palmer, daughter of John A. Palmer, Sr., of Kilmarnock, and Frank Alonsworth, chief bookkeeper at the Eubank-Tankard fish factory, were married in Baltimore Wednesday. Immediately after he ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Alonsworth left for Florida, where they will remain for soveral weeks. On their return they will reside at Kilmarnock. Francis Addison Bristow, one of the oldest and most highly esteemed citizens of Middlesex county, died very suddenly one night last week at his home ': Urbanna. He was a gallant Confederate soldier, and took a deep interest in the history of the war. He had for many years been a member of the Urbanna Baptist Church. His widow, a brother and a sister survive him.

The Lancaster Teachers' Association will hold its second meeting for the current session here next Friday.

The Rev. R. N. Hartness, the new paster of the Methodist churches on the Lancaster circuit, has arrived with his family and has settled down to work in the parsonage here. Mrs. Henry Brooke G'lpin and Miss Dorothy Gilpin have returned to their home in Virginia after a stay of some weeks in Baltimore. Miss Katherine Scott, of this city, has been the guest of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. John W. Scott, for a few [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Waverly, Va., December 10.—Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Daniel, of Waverly,

Considerable Portion of Tobacco Crop Sold—No Clue in Murder Mystery. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Buckingham, Va., December 10.—
The weather has been so fine for fall work that every available person finds plenty of work and good prices for their labor. Farmers are well up with their work, and have sold a considerable part of their tobacco crops.

Sheriff Williams has been up to Manteo in the effort to solve the have been made so far. That an inexperienced hand tried to open the murder mystery there, but no arrests afe in G. W. Patieson's store was guidenced by the bungling manner in which they went at it. With an axe, it is said, the attempt was made to break the door of the iron safe, but the first must have become frightened, or perhaps the enormity of the crime Sample Sale of Felt Slippers N. W. Corner Third and Broad St. Dool Shoes and Stockings

Halling to Street

Sweater Coats For Men. $1.50 wool mixed; sale price, $1.25.

Good heavy cotton ones, $1.00. Good wool, in plain weave, $2.45. $5.00 all pure wool ones, $4.50.

he had just committed unnerved him so that he did not steal what he might have secured.

The new phone line has been completed from this place to Mantee passing through one of the best sec passing through on tions of the county.

ELECTIONS AT A. AND M. Strenuous Contents for Athletic Assiciation Offices.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
West Raileigh, N. C., December 10.—
At one of the most largely attended neetings of the Athletic Association recent years held in Pullen Hall ous contests: President of the Athlott, Association, D. W. Seifert; Vice-President, E. P. Speer; Secretary, W. H. Graham, Jr.; Manager of the 1912 Foot ball Team, J. I. McCallum, of Charlotte N. C.; Assistant Manager of the 191. Football Team, W. L. Shaw, Jr., 9, Weldon, and W. L. Jewell, of Wilmington, mington.

At a recent meeting of the senior class, the following marshals for commencement were elected: From the junior class, C. G. Spencer, chief; N. S. Lachicotte, and F. D. Poisson; from the sophomore class, J. F. Schenck and R. J. Franklin; from the freshman class, W. P. Grimesley and R. E. Hatton.

cently elected officers for the spring term as follows: President, C. M. Tay-lor; Vice-President, T. P. Lovelnee; Secretary and Treasurer, N. S. Lachicotte; Floor Manager, J. B. Fearing

Masons Elect Officers

Masons Elect Omeo...
[Special to The Times Dispatch.]
Montercy Va., December 10.—HighMontercy No. 110, Ancient, Fraternal
Locanted Masons, at its stated land Lodge, No. 110, Ancient, Fraternal and Accepted Masons, at its stated December communication, elected the following officers for the ensuing year:

J. Clifton Matheny, worshipful master; E. A. McNulty, senior warden; H. C. Lunsford, junior warden; C. M. Lunsford, treasurer; W. H. Matheny, secretary; Robert Sterrett, senior deacon; Paul S. Slaven, junior deacon.

The lodge has arranged for a public installation of these officers on the 27th, which will be the first exercises of the kind to be held in the handsome new hall just completed.

MN.THE.SPUR. OF THE MOMENT By ROY K. MOULTON.

Our Furnace Symposium.

J. H. W. writes:
"Wo have finally found out what is the matter with our furnace. We had a furnace man to look it over the other day, and he informed us that the trouble with our furnace. We had a it was no good when it was new; that it was no good when it was new; that it was no good when it was new; that the front in the chimney has no circulation, the grate clogs, the hot water tank lasks, the fire-pot is cracked, the registers are too close to the floor, we have been building the fire too near the top of the furnace, we use the wrong Nnd of coal, the front draft doesn't work, the check draft leaves a hole large enough to throw a cat through. The shaker is too crooked, the damper in the pipe binds, the front door hinges squeak, we use a long handled shovel when we should use a short one, and the patent on the furnace has expired. He omitted to mention that our grandfather was once arrested for stealing a horse, or staters he matter with their furnace man about it all, too. If any of the brothers on staters have matted with our furnace. He was a perfect gentleman about it all, too. If any of the brothers of the matter with their furnaces have should send for a furnace man and he will tell them every synptom dwn for ingloone and spavin."

Our Hash Symposium.

Patience writes: "The soest home-said the matter with heir furnaces in the will adapt the formation of the furnace, when we may so the word of the writes: "The soest home-saided Christmas present I know of is a plum puddin'. Ladies, take notice."

Our Hash Symposium.

Patience writes: "The soest home-saide Christmas present I know of is a plum puddin'. Ladies, take notice."

Our Hash Christmas determined the will be write was only the set of the stating present and the will adapt the first of the will be done the first of the wall and gild it. Trim the will be a caudil appendage hung around the kitchen door at our board-individual proposed the set of the stating present and the will be set of the stating present and the will be set

Ha, ha!"
Shame on you. Behave yourself, fair but frivolous maid! What's your telephone number? A good many of the members of our furnace club would like to know.

thas experienced all the pleasures of this life until he has tried to run a six-column newspaper in a one-column town. Most of us have.

There are two kinds of men who don't know anything about women, and they are the married men and the single men.

made Christmas present I know of is a plum puddin'. Ladies, take notice."

"Patience" writes: "For several weeks a poor little dog with a can tied to his caudal appendage hung around the kitchen door at our boarding house, and has now disappeared. There is some speculation among the boarders as to his whereabouts. Of course, I don't mean to cast any insinuations, at all, but that dog cortainly had a pathetic look. Coming events cast their shadows before them, and the shadow of great grief certainly o'erspread the features of that faithful canine. Did he have a promonition that his young life was soon to end? The boarders would give a great deal to see that dog alive and well right now, and not for purely sentimental reason, either."

"Biscult Shooter" says: "Say, honest to goodness, the things I could tell about the way the hash was made at the last boarding house where I worked would fill a book that would make Webster's Unabridged Dictionary look like a vest pocket almanac. Honest, I saw—(the remainder of the letter is suppressed).

"Young Man" writes: "There is never the slightest doubt about what we are going to get to eat at our boarding place. It comes under yarlous aliases, but it always tastes the same. Horace Fletcher, the famous chewologist, would nover get any inspiration here, because we don't have to chew. But still, I found the wire dishcloth in mine the other day."

members of our furnace club would like to know.

According to Uncle Abner.
The soapbox statesmen down to the grocery store have started in to discuss the 1912 presidential situation, and it begins to look as though 1912 will be an off year for farm work. Red finned underwear ain't so much of a sign of aristocracy ag it was back in pioneer days of the lumber industry. There ain't nobody who is such a bore as the feller who has been to New York once, and only once.
There is no woman theatre flead who will brag that she saw "Uncle Tom's Cabin' with the original cast. Offe of the bast ways I know qf to get hard cleer quick is to set it out doors and let it freeze. Then you kin make it so hard you have to break it off with an ax and eat it like molasses candy.
There ain't no one-armed restaurant's pumpkin ple like mother used to make,
You kin always tell a restaurant boarder when he gits to a banquet, fer he always wipes off his plate with his napkin, and never takes the top piece of bread off'n the pllo.
One of the most embaryassin' things in this world is an engagement ring that begins to turn green after she has had it a week or two.
Outside o' sending a high rollin' kid to college, about the surcest way to die poor is to est in boin' a "good feller" yourself.
It is hard to do some people a favor and keep their respect.
There are more people writin' poetry than there are people readin' it. No man can truthfully say that he

NEW POWER PLANT

Represents Expenditure of $500,ooo-Progressive Health Measure.

Fenn.

L. Morse McCormick, superintendent of the City Health Department, leaves within a short time for Northern cities, where he will do special work the housefules of those places. within a short time for Northern cities, where he will do special work in the laboratories of those places. Upon his return to Asheville a city laboratory will be established here for the free use of those who are unable to have tests made for tuberculesis and other diseases. It is said that a number of people who come here are unable to pay local phylcians to make the tests for them, and in order that those people may be benefited and so that the Board of Health may be aided in keeping a record of the cases treated hore, it has been decided to establish the laboratory, which will represent an actual expenditure of approximately $1,000. The laboratory will be situated in the City Hall, on the second floor, and arrangements will second floor, and arrangements will be made whereby all air going into the room and escaping from it may be The greatest development of timber is that now being undertaken by the Asheville Timber Company, which was Asheville Timber Company, which was recently organized by S. Montgomory Smith and his associates. This company has secured options on practically all of the spruce tracts in Western North Carolina, with the exception of the lands owned by the Champion Lumber Company and its allied interests. The options which have been secured by the Asheville Timber Company and the secured by the Secure pany include four different tracts which contain 260,000 acres of land and on which there are about a billion and two hundred and fifty million feet of spruce, six hundred million feet of hemlock and the billion and hundred million feet of hardwoods.

ENJOYABLE DANCE AT V. P. L. College Club Gives Annual Thanksgiv-

College Club Gives Annual Thanksgivgiving German.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Blacksburg, Va., December 10.—The German Club, of the Virginia Polytechnic Institute gave its annual Thanksgiving dance Friday evening, and young women from all parts of Virginia were present. Ernest Saunders, of Suffolk, dancing with Miss Elizabeth Hairston, of Roanoke, ied a number of pretty figures, and a course supper was served at midnight in the college dining hall, after which damcing was continued. The chaperons included Mrs. C. M. Newman, Mrs.
N. S. Mayo, Mrs. J. S. A. Johnson, of the V. P. I., and Mrs. Nellie Robinson, of Blacksburg. Among those dancing were Miss Louise Black, of Blacksburg, and J. E. Burke; Miss Mary Henderson, of Blacksburg, and L. P.
Smithy; Miss Mary Ellett, of Christiansburg, and J. H. B. Fogleman; Miss Bossie Ellett, of Christiansburg, and W. M. Brodle; Miss Evelyn Shirey, of

Schwarzschild Bros. SILVER BAGS and

CARD PURSES For Christmas Gifts Are in great demand this sea-

The popularity of this store is due to the fact that the new-est articles are to be found here first.

Measure.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Asheville, N. C., December 19.—The new power plant of the North Carolina Electrical Power Company, which has been in the course of construction just below the town of Marshall, near this city, for the past two years, has been finished, and the plant of the Champion Fibro Company, at Canton, twenty-seven miles mway, is now boing Jun by the electrical power. The plant is situated on the French Broad River, and represents an expenditure of $500,000. Contracts have been signed whereby the new plant is to furnish the electrical power for a number of the lowns of the Western part of this State, and it has a capacity of $500-horsepower.

The Asheville Cotton Mills, employing 350 men, which has been closed down for the past four months on account of the unsatisfactory condition of the cotton market, resumed operations yesterday morning. This mill is owned by the Cone interests of Greensbord, and it has been announced that $55,000 will be expended on improvements to the mill and the mill property.

The fifth annual show of the Asheville Doultry and Pet Stock Association will be held here for four days, beginning Tuesday morning. A number of entries have been received, and the exhibition promises to be an unusually successful one. At the time of the show tho State meetings of the Rhode Island Red Club of America the National Single-Comb White Log-horn Club, and the National Partridge Wyandotte Club will be held in this city. F. J. Marshall, of College Park, Ga., has been chosen as the judge of the Asheville show, which follows immediately those which will be held at the state of the Club, and the National Partridge Wyandotte Club will be held in this city. F. J. Marshall, of College Park, Ga., has been chosen as the judge of the Asheville show, which follows immediately those which will be held in this city. F. J. Marshall, of College Park, Ga., has been chosen as the judge of the Asheville show, which follows immediately those which will be held at the part of the Club and the Others were Messrs. Hobart. C. Evans, Shackleford, Harris Hoga, B. B. Lewis, L. Futton, G. G. Garrison, C. P. Miles, T. f. Hutoheson, A. S. McCown, Stockton Heth, Jr., and A. G. Glibb.

Cown, Stockton Heth, Jr., and A. G. Gibbi.

Members of the faculty of the college of agriculture have been absent in turn this week, attending two "movable schools of agriculture." One was held at Elk Garden and the other at Marion, good crowds attending and much interest being shown at both places.

Dr. E. A. Bach, State Entomologist, has been granted a two months' leave of absence by the beard of crop pest commissioners, and will spend the time in Florida to complete and prepare the final reports of the spraying experiments undertaken by the Federal Bureau of Entomology in connection with its investigation of the citrus pests in Florida. While away Dr. Bach will deliver several lectures before the students of the University of Florida.

W. P. Angel, a former instructor to

W. P. Angel, a former instructor in the college, and now with the North Carolina A. and M., spent a part of the week here, INTERESTING CASES FOR TRIAL December Torm of Amherst Court Will Convene To-Day.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch,]
Amherst, Va., December 10.—The December torm of the Amherst Circuit Court will convene Monday. During Amherst, Va., December 10.—The December torm of the Amherst Circuit Court will convene Monday. During the first week criminal matters will be taken up. Among the cases to be tried is that of Commonwealth vs. Walter Grant, charged with shooting the Gilbert brothers, of this county, last spring. This case was postponed at the October torm on account of absence of witnesses. John Lockard and Jack Hanson will be tried upon the charge of assaulting Robert. Thomas on November 4 last, All the parties are white.

During the good weather, work on the macadam road is being rushed. About five miles of road from Amherst station in the direction of Sandidges has been completed. At a recent meeting of the Board of Supervisors it was deedded to continue the present contract. The road thus far constructed is a great aid to the farmers of the county, as they are able to market their tobacco and other crops sold in Lynchburg in much less time than was required when the common dirt roads were used.

Rev. C. Aylett Ashby, rector

Will stay in the stomach when nothing else will-"Ask anyone who has Sold by all druggiest-just as it flows from the spring. JA. Morris & Co, Distributors

Iron Bed, Spring and Mattress, $5.50

Hopkins Furniture Co., 7 West Broad St.

Washed Gravel

It would pay you to see us if you are a contractor.

C. P. Lathrop